

RiffTrax TV presents Santa and the Ice Cream Bunny: Extended Edition!

Riffed in-studio! Streaming Friday, 12/16, and again Saturday 12/17, at 7pm (PST) on both days.

Michael J. Nelson, Bill Corbett, and Kevin Murphy of RiffTrax.com and Mystery Science Theater 3000 will host and perform an in-studio riff of the instant holiday classic Santa and the Ice Cream Bunny. Attempts to describe this timeless film range from “my favorite Christmas movie that has an ice cream bunny” to “I don’t know what this is or why this is happening to me but I think I love it” to “Mankind’s Greatest Achievement.”

But there’s more. That’s right, over 13 more minutes of Bunny that have, until now, gone totally unriffed! This time, we leave nothing out. This time, it’s Santa and the Ice Cream Bunny: Extended Edition.

Mike, Bill and Kevin will also present a free preview of our next slice of holiday weirdness—upcoming VOD release Magic Christmas Tree!
